Canneries Ready For Long Busy Season

CAMPBELL PACKERS SPEND $200,000 IN IMPROVEMENTS

Campbell's biggest industrial asset, the fruit industry, is making a few finishing touches here and there, in preparation for the big annual fruit drive, in which this valley goes over the top every season, with its world-famed products.

All three of our canning plants have made substantial improvements to increase both the capacity of pack and facility in handling the fruit through all its processes.

The J. C. Ainsley Packing Co., has erected an entirely new cannery with most modern and complete machinery. In the receiving room is installed a monster double dial Howe scale, computing net weight and tare to the pound. The fruit is sorted and carried to the cutters by conveyors, and the cut fruit to the packers by the same means. Conveyors carry the cans to the exhaust boxes, capping machines, and on through the cookers, from whence they are trucked to the cooling shed.

A very pleasant locker and rest room has been fitted up in the basement, where, with couches and easy chairs, away from the noise of the machinery, one may enjoy a cool, refreshing rest.

A first-aid room has been conveniently located near the work room, where minor injuries may be promptly and properly cared for. The Ainsley cannery is one of the latest and best creations in cannerydom.

The Geo. E. Hyde & Co. has just completed its new brick cannery, a model in arrangement, lighting and ventilation. New machinery has been installed, with fruit conveyors to the various departments so arranged that the maximum capacity may be obtained.

The fruit passes from the sealing machines through the floor to the cooking machines in a separate room. These new cookers are of the cylindrical type, and are so made that the time of cooking is regulated by the speed of the carriers, with but one outlet for all cooked fruits. The former packing department has been converted into the cooking and cooling room. Over this has been erected additional shook and storage room and syrup cookers. The cooled cans are conveyed to various parts of the warehouse, where they are stacked to await shipment. By conveyors, case goods may be taken from any part of the warehouse to the car on track.

The California Canneries Co. has made a considerable improvement in its plant, preparatory to opening the canning season. The plant has been enlarged, giving more floor space for convenience, and a pleasant rest room is provided, with storage and an enlarged syrup room above. New machinery has been added to take care of the increasing demand for capacity. A long season is planned for, as this company packs tomatoes late in the season.

Already some apricots have been delivered, so that the canning season will probably begin during next week. All three canneries will begin about the same time.

Econony In Cooking

You are going to hear a great deal, in the near future, about a new method of economy in the kitchen. Steam pressure is going to work a gradual revolution in cooking.

Boiling water throws off steam. Steam carries away heat. Steam confined is heat saved. Result: less fuel used, less time needed, more thorough cooking done.

The Good Fairy Pressure Cooker is a heavy, cast aluminum kettle. It has a steam-tight cover, a safety-valve, and a steam guage. Here are some of the things claimed for it: Will cook all fresh vegetables in ten minutes, dry beans in thirty minutes, tough meats in forty minutes. Will save its cost in ninety days.

Pressure Cookers are selling by the hundreds in the large cities. Expert cooks are writing about them, the covernment is recommending the use of them. They are made in four sizes. The prices are $16.50, $20.00, $25.00 and $32.50. Examine them at our store.

TERSELY TOLD

Sacramento.—Permits have been issued by City Building Inspector Ben Covell to the Southern Pacific Company for the erection of two shop buildings. One will be a spring shop and the other a brass foundry. Each building will cost approximately $23,000.

Palo Alto.—The marriage of Miss Eleanor Warriner of Palo Alto to Forrester Chase, a member of a prominent Los Angeles family took place here June 23 at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Larber.

San Francisco. — Ernest O. Schraustadter, 41 years old, 720 Fourth avenue, was killed and two other men were injured June 23 in a collision of two automobiles and a municipal street car at Divisadero and Geary streets.

San Jose.—Miss Clara Field, a music teacher, jumped or fell from the fourth floor window of a dentist's waiting room in the Garden City Bank Building here June 24. When passersby reached her she was dead. Attendants of the dentist said she must have raised the window while alone in the room. Friends reported that she had been in poor health for some time.

San Francisco.—Jewelry valued at $2500 was stolen from a trunk belonging to Miss L. Ebersole, 1565 Clay street, while in transit from St. Louis to this city, according to her report to the police. The trunk was one of three shipped to this city. Seals and lock were broken and a platinum ring, set with eight diamonds, a $500 diamond pin and other articles missing when the trunk was delivered.

Sacramento.—A stir was created in quiet old J. street when a Mexican walked up and down the street clad like a cannibal and shouting like a black man at a missionary feast. The man was naked except for a crazily flapping necktie and a pair of battered old shoes. Police officers, after deciding that the Mexican was demented, further clad him in a pair of handcuffs.

Sacramento.—The initiative measure requiring a 25 per cent signature to initiate measures referring to taxation will go on the November ballot, sufficient signatures having been secured to qualify the measure, according to an announcement made today by J. N. Chemin of the Secretary of State's office. The measure increases the number of signatures for taxation proposals from 8 to 25 per cent.

San Francisco.—Discovery of two deaths within 24 hours from the contagious form of spinal meningitis in Berkeley set the machinery of the Berkeley Board of Health in motion toward combating a possible epidemic of the dreaded malady in the college city. Dr. Ernest Pape, health officer, announced that the two fatal cases were the only ones known to his office. To ward against a possible spread of the disease he urged that all physicians report promptly cases with symptoms of spinal meningitis.

Willows.— Dr. Marrion Pirkey, one of the oldest and best known residents of Glenn County, was laid to rest here June 22, at a funeral under Masonic auspices. He had been ill a year. He came to Willows and began practicing dentistry thirty-five years ago. He was one of the organizers of the First National Bank here and was cashier for nine years, when he was named president. For many years he was Captain of Company G of the National Guard and later was major of the Eighth Infantry. He was 67.

Sacramento.—When he explained that he violated his probation to enlist in the army during the war and showed that he had done valuable work in France under and assumed name, John Mitchell was exonerated by Superior Judge Malcolm C. Glenn in the Superior Court here yesterday. He was placed on probation in 1916 following conviction for failure to provide for his family. He showed the court papers proving he assumed the name of William Reed in order to enlist. He served in two battles in France, was wounded and cited for bravery.

San Francisco.— Holding that Samuel Harris was too prodigal when he provided in his will that a $10,000 mausoleum should be constructed for his remains in Kalamazoo, Mich. Judge Graham reduced the sum to $2,800 and further provided that the monument should be made here and shipped to Kalamazoo. Harris died at the Clift Hotel a year ago, leaving a $90,000 estate to several nephews and nieces and setting aside $10,000 for the mausoleum. The nephews and nieces objected to this provision, asserting that such an expenditure would be extravagance. The court agreed with them.

BANKER BACK FROM ANTIPODES
New York Financier Gives View Concerning Proposed Chinese Loan

San Francisco.—J. W. Harriman, president of the Harriman National Bank in New York City, who returned June 24 from a six months' tour of the Philippine islands, China and Japan, expressed considerable doubt as to the value of the recent two weeks' flying visit of leading allied bankers to the Orient, which resulted in a rapid formation of a consortium for the exploitation of Chinese raw materials.

Harriman, Interviewed yesterday at the St. Francis, said:

"I am glad to think that English and French bankers now members of the consortium are in a position to join American and Japanese bankers in this exploitation, and yet I do not quite understand how this is possible.

"According to newspaper reports published recently, the two countries, England and France, claim to be in such a state of financial distress they cannot pay even the interest on their debt to the United States. How can it be that English and French bankers are eager to invest capital in a country lacking a stable government—namely China—but claim bankruptcy when it is suggested they invest their money in a country with a stable government, or, in other words, pay their debt to the United States?

"The mere payment of the interest of the debt would immediately and materially reduce the high cost of living and taxes in this country. Should England, for instance, pay the interest on her debt to this country, she would still be better off than we are, for the following reason:

"The interest, which annually amounts to ten billion dollars, would if paid, reduce her total debt 33 per cent, or down to a figure of $26,000,000,000, and this would correspond exactly to the debt of the United States incurred by the war; and yet England would have colonies she never had before and a vastly increased merchant marine.

During his six months' trip Harriman made a close study of existing conditions in the Orient from the point of view of the layman bent on meeting the common people rather than hobnobbing with the high lights of finance and commerce. He lived, hunted and fished with the natives, and in this way got in touch with the thoughts of the average man.

STRIKEBREAKER SUES FOR $555 BACK PAY

San Francisco.—An echo of the street car strike in Los Angeles last August was heard June 24 in the suit of C. V. Brown before Superior Judge James M. Troutt for $555 from John J. Jerome. Brown said he gave up a position with the United Railroads to accept Jerome's offer of $12.50 a day for a ten-hour shift and $1.25 an hour overtime as long as he was on strike duty in Los Angeles as Jerome's chief assistant, after which he was to receive $175 per month as manager of Jerome's San Francisco office. He is suing for overtime of five to ten hours a day from August 19 to September 30. P. F. Jordan captain of guards, testified that he heard Jerome's offer to Brown.

BANKER ARRESTED AS MINE WORKER'S AUDITORS SLAYER

Detroit, Mish.— Police arrested Frank Dohaney, banker and lawyer, charging him with the slaying of August Dwyer, traveling auditor of the United Mine Workers of America, whose body was found in the office of his brother, Dennis Dwyer an attorney, in a downtown office building last night. Dohaney, the last man to have seen Dwyer, was placed under arrest at his summer home at Pine Lake. When arrested his clothing bore blood spots of which he could give no coherent account.

POWER FIRM RAISES PAY, CUTS HIGH COST

Boston.—An increase of 10 per cent in the pay of its employes, effective July 1, has been granted by the Boston Edison Company, it was announced June 24. About 2000 workers will benefit by the increase. At the same time the company will make a reduction of 5 per cent in the price of electricity for lighting to its 115,000 retail customers.

Sacramento.—Judge Arthur H. Mc Curdy was seriously injured when he stepped off the rear porch of a local cafe.

Sacramento.—The California State Highway Department has 1459 employes, according to figures given out at the State Capitol.

Santa Cruz.— Mrs. Martha Cox, who is charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to murder her husband who has been in jail for about five days, was released from jail on $1060 bail.

SENSATIONAL CAREER CLOSES
Charles Willis Ward, Aged Millionaire, Answers Death's Call —Noted Bulb Grower

San Francisco.—In the death at Eureka June 24 of Charles Willis Ward finis is wrtten to a lurid chapter begun by Cupid, framed in a San Francisco setting and embellished with love's ardor and a Police Court sensation. In another epoch—say about the time of Louis Le Grand—Ward, aged millonaire and bulb grower, watchmaker and lumber king, would have been hailed as one of the world's great lovers. In the prosaic twentieth century his superabundance of affection led to a sordid scandal.

Ward, who was 64 years of age, took his place as a disciple of Aphrodite in July of last year, when, by swearing to a complaint against Mrs. Alice Wilson, 1095 Geneva ave. charging her with having performed a criminal operation upon one of her daughters, he also bared the secret of his love for the girl, the fact that earlier advances made to her twin sister had been rejected, and the rebound had thrown him to the feet of the other inamorita.

Ward's remarkable remance had its inception when he was ill in a San Francisco hotel with influenza. The twins nursed him back to health. He settled $100,000 on each of them and a like amount on their mother. He had a wife living in the East, from whom he had been separated for years. He claimed to have entered into an agreement with Alice Wilson whereby she became his "contract" wife and was to become his legal wife as soon as he had secured a divorce. The relationship continued for two months when, he said, Mrs. Wilson, discovering her daughter was to become a mother, feared family disgrace and performed the operation. Ward wanted an heir and in his chagrin caused the arrest of the mother.

Ward at the time of his death, was 64 years old. On the death of his father he inherited vast timber tracts in Trinity and Humboldt counties. He was not the only member of his family to achieve notoriety as a devotee of the goddess of love and beauty. His sister Clara Ward, who became the Princess Chimay, shocked Europe several years ago by her elopement with Rigo, the Gypsey fiddler.

CAR, AUTO CRASH; 6 PERSONS HURT
Boy, 3, One of Victims of Berkeley Accident, Is Likely to Die

San Francisco.—Six persons were injured, one probably fatally, when a Shattuck avenue street car collided with an automobile containing women and children as passengers at Shattuck avenue and Haste street, Berkeley, early Thursday night.

Injured

Donald Wharton, 3 years old, 2610 Grove street, Berkeley; fractured skull, may die; Richard Wharton, 18 months old; body lacerations; Mrs. Maude Petersen, 32 years old, 2610 Grove street, Berkeley, face and body bruises; Mrs. P. D. Wharton, 35 years old, sister of Mrs. Petersen; possible internal injuries; Pearl Whitsett, 12 years old, 2604 Grove street, Berkeley; right leg broken, cuts and bruises of body; Maxine Whitsett, 9 years old; cut and bruised.

Witnesses told the police that Mrs. Petersen, who was driving her automobile, drove directly in front of the fast moving street car and that Motorman E. P. Norton tried fractically to avoid the collision.

The automobile was struck with terrific force, thrown against the curb and overturned. Donald Wharton was hurled out of the machine and struck on his head. Mrs. Wharton was dragged ten feet by the street car. Mrs. Petersen escaped with minor bruises. The injured were treated at the Roosevelt Hospital.

Mrs. Petersen told the Berkeley police she had taken the Whitsett children to the depot to meet Mrs. Warton, her sister, and the Wharton children. The accident happened while Mrs. Petersen was en route to her Grove street home.

U. S. MARINE CORPS INSTITUTE OPENED

The Marines are at it again!

This time it is a Marine Institute with correspondence course, including everything, from poultry raising to salesmanship, as a part of the daily duties of the Fifth Regiment at Quantico, Va., to which all recruits who elect the two courses in higher mathematics will be sent.

The above announcement follows on the heels of a telegram from Washington stating that the enlisted strength of the Corps has been increased from 17,000 to 27,000.

Proclaimed Day of Liberty

Father of the Fourth

Jefferson Ever Friend of Liberty and the Enemy of All Forms of Despotism

By ROBERTUS LOVE.

The Father of His Country was George Washington, but the Father of the Fourth of July was Thomas Jefferson. Jefferson wrote the Declaration of Independence, which was adopted and signed on the fourth day of July, 1776. Forever thereafter that day was and will be "the Glorious Fourth." The Declaration of Independence was a special plea for the rights of the individual., The whole life of Thomas Jefferson was a protest against the old-time tyranny which sought to limit the development and action of individual man. Jefferson loved liberty and despised despotism. He was the principal pioneer of democracy in all the world. On this account all that he did and said and wrote, his manner of living and working, his home and his surroundings, are of interest to the world.

So far as real human interest goes, the home of Jefferson was and is more fruitful of entertaining anecdote and reminiscence than the home of Washington. Both homes are in Virginia. Jefferson's home, which he called Monticello divided with Mount Vernon the reverence and homage of Americans who have inherited the priceless blessings of Republican government for which Washington fought with his sword and Jefferson with his pen.

Sacred to Lovers of Liberty.

Monticello is one of America's shrines of pilgrimage. The house, shown below, is three miles from the town of Charlottesville. Albermarle county, 115 miles from Washington. Fewer persons visit it, because it is much more remote from the main-traveled roads than is Mount Vernon, almost within sight of the national capital.

At Monticello Jefferson lived nearly sixty years. Within a stone's throw he spent his entire life, for he was born on the estate, and though he was absent for several years in France as American minister, and for eight years as president of the United States, and also in the occupancy of other offices, that was always his home. He loved it above all other spots on earth, from the cradle to the grave. There was rocked his cradle and there his grave was made, when after 83 years of labor for the rights of man he died on the Fourth of July, exactly 50 years after the signing of the Declaration of Independence. It was given to him to experience half a century of the fruits of his own efforts toward a more equitable form of government, something new to human society.

History of Monticello.

In 1769 Jefferson began the construction of his mansion on the mountain above Charlottesville. On New Year's day of 1772 he took thither his bride, the beautiful young Widow Skelton, whose husband, Bathurst Skelton, had died when she was in her nineteenth year, leaving her a considerable fortune. She was about twenty-three when Jefferson married her. Mrs. Jefferson was a singularly beautiful woman, with auburn hair to match the red locks of her famous husband. She lived only about ten years after her second marriage. Jefferson never took another wife. His daughter was the mistress of Monticello and likewise the mistress of the Executive Mansion when Jefferson was president of the United States. Jefferson survived his wife 44 years.

For the last 50 years of his life Jefferson was hopelessly insolvent. From time to time his precious estate and home were in imminent danger of being sold over his head. His debts were due to various causes. For one thing, he put his name on notes for friends and was held responsible for large sums. Then he was an extravagant entertainer. His house was perhaps the most commodious and manorlike in America. He was famous in two continents. Every person of distinction who came from Europe to visit the United States made Monticello his chief objective point. He must see "the Sage." It cost the Sage money, of course.

The chambers occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson are most interesting. Jefferson, a radical in all things, a progressive in an age that was not particularly progressive, had ideas of his own with regard to household furniture. Heretofore people had slept in massive, cumbersome beds, with great posts or frames at the foot and head. Jefferson changed this, for himself and wife. He built two rooms, connected by a wide archway. In this archway he placed the Jeffersonian bed, which was merely a large couch of simple design, minus the unnecessary foot and head work. The bed closed up the archway, there being no other communication between the two rooms. In one of the chambers Mrs. Jef[illegible] the other Thom[illegible]on studied and wrote. When Mrs. Jefferson was ready to retire she disrobed in her boudoir and climbed into the bed from her side. When Mr. Jefferson sought the refreshment of Morpheus he disrobed in his study and climbed into the bed from his side. It was all very handy.

Jefferson's Monument.

The epitaph on the original monument over Jefferson's grave was written by Jefferson himself. It reads:

"Here was buried Thomas Jefferson, author of the Declaration of Independence, of the Statute of Virginia for Religious Freedom, and Father of the University of Virginia."

It thus appears that Jefferson was more proud of these three achievements than of being president of the United States, as he does not even mention the latter distinction.

From a hilltop near Monticello one may see the birthplaces of three men whose work and wisdom added to the United States nearly one-half of its present territory on this continent. These men were Jefferson, George Rogers Clark and Meriwether Lewis. Through the efforts of Clark the states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and part of Michigan were added to our domain. Meriwether Lewis, with a younger brother of George Rogers Clark, was sent by Jefferson on the famous trip of exploration and discovery which, many years later, resulted in giving Uncle Sam title to the Pacific Northwest.

A Warm Welcome

Business had been bad with the touring theatrical company in the last two towns they had visited.

But the advance booking in the next town was said to be good, and it was only this hope that held the little company together.

A last, in the late hours of Sunday evening, the company reached the city of its hopes.

The manager stepped from the train and gazed over the railway station railings.

"What a glorious sunset " he exclaimed.

"Garn!" yelled a passing youngster, "That's the theayter burning down!"—London Answers.

Sim's Way

Admiral Sims aimed to have all the men who were at sea under his direction during the war, act on their own initiative.

One day the Admiral got a wireless from a Captain, saying in substance: "Am lost in the fog. Shall I try to proceed to destination or return to port "

And Sims wirelessed back: "Yes."

The Captain didn't get it, and repeated his original message.

So Sims then wirelessed back: "No."—Saturday Evening Post.

STOP! CALOMEL IS QUICKSILVER

It's mercury! Attacks the bones, salivates and makes you sick.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone—a perfect substitute for calomel.

It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and cannot salivate.

Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tone, because it is perfectly harmless.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tone acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.—Adv.

Beauty Chats

By EDNA KENT FORBES

PRETTY TEETH

TOO much emphasis cannot be laid upon the fact that the teeth must be given daily brushings and must be looked after by a good dentist once every half year. Poor teeth will spoil the best shaped mouth, will ruin a smile. Teeth neglected so that they have to be pulled, cause hollows in the cheeks, and lines around the mouth, where the hollow gums shrink. Teeth that grow in wrong, or were neglected when young, often cause badly shaped chins. Children and babies who are allowed to suck their fingers usually grow up with protruding lips, badly formed jawbones, and receding chins.

The receding chin and protruding teeth combination give a look of stupidity to the face that takes away any other good looks. A good dentist can remedy this, frequently, by gradually spacing the teeth so they grow straight instead of outward. In other cases, where the jaw is badly formed and the teeth are jagged, small wedges are put between, spacing the teeth away from each other, and so giving them room to grow properly. A few old-fashioned dentists still use gold wires and screws for this, but this form of discomfort is done away with by more modern practitioners. These use soft wedges, taking them out and replacing them frequently.

For general care of the teeth, two daily brushings should be the rule. Teeth decay and yellow because food particles collect, sour, form gases and eat into the enamel. Diseases of the gum result from neglect. Gum shrinking can be avoided in most cases if the teeth are brushed up and down as well as crosswise.

Rash Statement

At the Workingmen's Institute there rose a fierce discussion as to whether women should be given a chance of filling the high appointments.

Convention Sidelights

Someone has said that prohibition is now a dead issue. It's about the liveliest corpse in delegation meetings at the Golden Gate City this week.

The Noblest Roman of them all, "Bill" Bryan, still has a punch in his right that is of much concern to all aspirants to Democratic preferment.

O H I O is quite the big noise about town and hotel lobbies, with its band, male chorus, and boosters for Gov. Cox.

"Mac'll Do" seems the most popular slogan in the lobbies. Committee-room frame-ups have not yet been published.

Hats off, when "Maryland" and "Dixie" are played by the band.

Russia is getting a deal of free publicity at the hands of pickets about the auditorium. She needs more substantial goods than these. "Russia needs food."

"Mitch" Palmer delegation from Georgia may cause a rift in the Democratic. Over two-thirds of the Georgia voters opposed the Palmer ticket, which is in a fair way to be seated. His opponents, the Hoke Smith-Watsons, declare to support Harding if not given consideration by the credentials committee.

By a slip in connections, H. C. Smith had the pleasure of viewing the convention from the sidewalk; with thousands of others who missed the ticket dispenser, Mr. Cochrane, chairman of publicity. This particular man proved very popular, and more elusive, to press men from all parts of the country and Canada.

A CARD.

We wish to extend our most hearty thanks and gratitude to our many friends and patrons who have been so considerate of our efforts. We have sold our business to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Crowell, of Los Angeles, and bespeak for them the same liberal patronage that we have enjoyed. It is with a great deal of regret that we leave Campbell, and be assured we would not, if health did not compel us to go.
Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Glover.

F. B. BROWN For Superior Judge

Judge F. B. Brown, candidate for Superior Judge, was born and raised on a farm in the State of Illinois. After passing thru the country district school, he was graduated from a full, four-year course in the Galva High school, standing highest in scholarship in a class of twelve.

He attended and was graduated from a full four-year course in Knox College, one of the oldest and best colleges in the Mississippi Valley, located at Galesburg, Illinois. He also taught school, and held the office of County Superintendent of Schools, being elected for three successive terms to that office.

Judge Brown came to California, coming directly to San Jose, in 1893, and after studying law in the office and under the direction of Judge J. R. Welch, was admitted to practice, on examination before the Supreme Court of the state of California, on December 24, 1895.

After a successful private practice of seven years, he was appointed to the office of City Attorney for the city of San Jose, by Mayor George D. Worswick, and served in that capacity for four years.

In July, 1906, he was tendered the appointment to the office of Justice of the Peace, San Jose township, by the board of Supervisors of Santa Clara county, and accepted it. He was elected to that office in the fall of 1906, and was re-elected in 1910, 1914 and 1918, the last three times practically without opposition.

It will thus be seen that Judge Brown has been actively engaged in the practice of law, and in the administration of justice, in Santa Clara county for almost 25 years. In all of that time, his ability, his integrity and his impartiality have never been questioned. His judgments have stood the test.

Two judges are to be chosen at the primary election, August 31, and Judge Brown's friends are determined that he shall be one of the chosen.

In his work on the bench, Judge Brown has specialized in that branch commonly designated by the term "Domestic Relations," the dealing with family difficulties between husband and wife, and the support and care of minor children. He has made it a study and has achieved a great success.

The Judge is public spirited to a marked degree, and can always be counted upon to help in everything for civic and community advancement. His purse is always open to every worthy cause. In the war time activities he was a leader among the four-minute speakers, worked unceasingly in and subscribed to every patriotic demand, and had a son in the service.

For 16 years he has been a member of the Board of Directors of the San Jose Chamber of Commerce, and was president of the Chamber in 1915.

H. E. Brandenburg has sold his cottage at Capitola.

J. J. Pardee and family went to Big Basin Wednesday to enjoy a week's outing, and see the Forest Play.

Mrs. H. C. Smith, Wilma, and Jim and Dick Knappen, returned last evening from a two-weeks' stay at the coast.

The town is filling up with fruit workers, and more yet to come. Some hive, this, for the next few months.

Wonderful! Scrumptious! Almost dazzling beyond endurance. What? That light the P. G. & E. turned on in Campbell—a year ago. It's the moon you see these days.
